

Conscious Leadership Mini-Camp is a half-day program designed to accelerate participants' growth as aware and empowered leaders and teams.

Mini-Camp is facilitated by Sue Heilbrunner, seasoned venture investor, speaker, advisor, executive coach, and Conscious Leadership facilitator.

INNOVATIVE TOOLS + HIGH-CALIBER EXECUTIVE COACHING

The intention of a Mini-Camp is to:

- Enable a leader, leadership team, vertical team, or an entire organization to explore the core concepts and models of Conscious Leadership
- Identify and potentially experience a shift on one key pattern that is interfering with a leader's realization of his or her full potential
- Promote a mindset of creativity, authenticity, and innovation
- Offer concrete management tools to support that mindset
- Leverage Conscious Leadership models to help leaders radically reduce workplace drama

Leadership Camp has earned raves from leaders at:

WHAT TO EXPECT

Conscious Leadership models offer a reliable path for leaders and their organizations to reach new heights of sustainable success. Camp is a blend of teaching, self-reflection and high-level executive coaching.

- Educational Content – Core models of Conscious Leadership in service of optimizing your leaders' managerial skills and access to his or her potential.
- Real-Time Practice – Small group breakouts directly apply these models to live situations currently occurring in participants' work life.
- Petri Dish for Authenticity – At Leadership Camp, “authenticity” is not a buzzword. Attendees build techniques and tools for being authentic leaders across their lives.
